東京画廊+BTAP Ⅱ 小品展

Tokyo Gallery+BTAP Ⅱ Annual small size work exhibition

Tokyo Gallery + BTAP is pleased to announce the opening of micro salon 2013, the gallery's annual small work exhibition commencing on Saturday, December 7th.

In December 1961 Tokyo Gallery held an exhibition titled micro salon, which showcased abundant small-scales works by 21 artists, including Hudertwasser, Sadamasa Motonaga, Taro Okamoto and Kazuo Shiarga, on the gallery walls. micro salon revived in December of 2010 as an exhibition that commemorated the 60th anniversary of Tokyo Gallery + BTAP and was met with favorable comments and reviews by our guests and media. To respond to our customers and friends' enthusiasm, we have decided to organize micro salon as a year-end annual event that would be held each year in December. micro salon 2013 will exhibit works by both Japanese and international artists that are currently represented by the gallery. In conjunction to the exhibition, the gallery will host an end-of-the-year party from 1:00 pm on Saturday, December 7th. Please save the date, as we will welcome our friends, clients and artists with buffet meals and drinks in order to express our gratitude to the people who supported us throughout this year.

We are looking forward to welcoming you at our gallery.
